ABOUT THE WORKSHOP: Clive Tyler's workshops are about getting in touch with your creative side, getting rid of fear and being free to try new techniques, learning other approaches to painting landscape, and learning more about pastel. Join him as he walks students, step-by-step, through the process of selecting pastels and papers, underpainting, applying pastels, framing, and storing. He will show you how to simplify what you are looking at so your approach to painting will go quickly. There will be demonstrations, handouts, and lots of personal attention. All levels of experience, including beginners, are welcome!
