

14th Annual Southeastern Cowboy Festival & Symposium
“Bringing the West Alive in Downtown Cartersville”
October 20-23, 2016

Demonstrators, once again we have exciting news for you this year.

The arrangement of our outdoor festival setup will be similar to last year. The Native American Village will be to the north side of the western stage and the Western Market Place will be in the same general area as last year. Art Under The Oaks will be in the same area but spread out more to make it easier to navigate. According to the majority of surveys returned, this was a successful setup using separate interest pods:

Western Cowboy Marketplace: Vintage clothing, saddles, leather carving, leather belts, old time photos, metal-works, western furniture. We are merging the Pioneer setup into this area with pottery being made lye soap making, basket weaving, chair caning, primitive antiques and many other items.

Native American Indian Village: For Native American items such as, jewelry, blankets, beading, baskets, bow and arrows, etc

Art Under the Oaks: for our artsy folks that just don't fit into a certain category, paintings, sculpture, painted gourds, carvings, etc. Artists feel free to bring your supplies and show us how your masterpieces are created.

Each demonstrator will choose the category where they and their wares will best fit in. Our research shows this concept has been used successfully in many different events across the country, drawing many people with matching interests into the areas for the vendors. Thank you to all who gave us feedback on this setup last year.

Please call or email your request for a space as soon as possible, as spaces are expected to fill up quickly. We will assign spaces as we receive your reservation. Application and payment is due no later than August 30, 2016, or we will have to reassign your space to the next one on our waiting list. Please send photographs of your wares with your application. Contact Liz Gentry at lizg@boothmuseum.org or call 770-387-1300 ext. 7235, or Macra Adair at madair@boothmuseum.org, 770-387-2096 for more information.

Again this year we are urging vendors to set up all day Wednesday 19th, after 2:00 pm on Thursday 20th and all day Friday, October 21st, 8:00 am until 7:00 pm, to avoid the backup that occurs when all come at once. There will be security on hand to keep a watchful eye on your treasures.

You can also ask for the “Booth rate” when staying at any of the following places, The Clarion Inn, The Hilton Garden Inn, Hampton Inn and Fairfield Inn.
