ABOUT THE WORKSHOP:

This 3-day workshop will help you approach painting flowers in oil directly with a loose, fresh, impressionistic approach. There will be demonstrations, instruction, critique, and guidance while you paint. You will learn approaches to understand and simplify flower shapes, depict form and depth thru observations of light and shadow patterns, and mix clean, vibrant color. On day one, you will work from a photo provided by Pat to understand and practice the basic technique and then on days 2 & 3 you will work from your own fresh flower set-ups.
