

SUMMER PROGRAM

Available for group bookings NOW!!!

PAINTED HORSES

Did you know the painted symbols on American Indian horses were meant to help the horse in some way? Join us as we explore the world of American Indians and their horses through art and activities at Booth Western Art Museum! Children will discover the meanings and stories behind the colorful markings while creating their very own artwork inspired by this hands-on, interactive program! Minimum of 10 paid participants required.

May 22 - July 31, 2017

Ages 5 - 12 years

90 minute program

$6.00 per person

1 adult free for every 15 children
