Booth Western Art Museum Public School Transportation Fund

The Booth Transportation Fund is generously supported by many individual donors, and is available to public schools to help offset the transportation expenses involved in taking an educational field trip to the Booth Museum.

The Booth Transportation Fund program includes:

- Reimbursement for public school bus transportation costs (up to 70% reimbursement). Charter buses are only considered in special circumstances and must be approved by Director of Education.
 - Request must be submitted and approved in advance of your field trip.
 - Invoices must be sent within 30 days following the field trip.
- Family discount coupon for each student

The transportation fund does not include student admission to the museum.

Student Costs for Docent-Guided Tours *(unless otherwise noted)

$5.00 for students

$4.00 for Bartow, Cherokee & Forsyth County students ($5.00 for STEAM)

$6.00 for STEAM and The Union Dissolved: American Presidents and the Civil War

Teachers & bus drivers – Free admission

$10.00 + tax for parents / chaperones
