HAAS FUND

Your support will make a meaningful difference to students, teachers and families.

The HAAS Educational Access Fund provides critical funding for public school groups in Georgia to experience a highly interactive, engaging educational field trip that supports the Georgia Standards of Excellence.

With this fund, contributions support both virtual field trips and transportation costs for Georgia students who might not otherwise experience the Booth Museum. By removing this financial hurdle, a total of 52,926 students have been able to experience our one-of-a-kind programming at Booth Western Art Museum.

Just before the live auction, gala guests will be given the opportunity to “raise” their bidder number and make a tax deductible donation in the amount of $2,500, $1,000, $500, or $250 to grow the Museum’s HAAS Fund and bring more young people to the West at Booth Western Art Museum.

A BIG THANK YOU to everyone who donated to the 2023 Gala and Art Auction!

Live and Silent Auction Proxy bidding

Booth Western Art Museum is pleased to offer complimentary absentee bidder service as a courtesy to collectors/patrons who cannot attend the auction. Please contact Cathy Lee Eckert at cleckert@georgiamuseums.org or 770-387-2387 to get full details, obtain a bid form, and make arrangements to bid. Bids must be submitted by 12:00pm ET on Thursday, February 16. Below are some of the terms for proxy bidding.

1. By placing proxy bid(s), I authorize Booth and its agents to bid on my behalf and try to purchase artwork or item(s) for the lowest possible price. I understand that Booth will bid starting at the minimum amount and increase as necessary in increments up to the maximum amount of my bid.
 2. Due to the competitive and incremental nature of bidding, I understand a piece may sell for my maximum bid amount and I may not be the winning bidder. If identical proxy bids are submitted, Booth will give precedence to the first one received.
 3. Proxy bidders will be contacted with auction results by email within 3 business days following the auction.
 4. I agree that, if my bid is successful, my credit card will be immediately charged the full amount plus any applicable local and Georgia state taxes, which may not apply for shipping out of state.
 5. If packing, shipping, and shipping insurance are required, Booth will contact me with options. I agree I will be responsible to promptly choose an option and pay those charges.

2023 ARTISTS OF EXCELLENCE

JOHN & TERRI MOYERS

John Moyers was born in Atlanta while his father Bill worked here as an illustrator. Soon after, the family moved to New Mexico where John grew up. Bill was an early member of the Cowboy Artists of America (CAA) and won several awards. Surrounded by his father's art, John was naturally aware of art and both the joys and the challenges that face artists trying to make a living. Following art school, he went to the Okanagan Game Farm in Penticton, British Columbia, in 1979 to study wildlife and paint from real life. He also met his wife Terri there. John enjoys painting a wide variety of subjects, American Indians, landscapes, cowboys, and themes from Old Mexico. During his roughly 15 years in the CAA, he won 26 medals for his work at their annual show, including six Best of Show awards. He has also won major awards at many other important events.

Terri Moyers says she never considered any career other than being an artist. Brief formal art training at Alberta College of Art was overshadowed by many trips to the Okanagan Game Farm to paint from life. There, she and artists from all over North America received instruction and critiques from master artists Robert Lougheed and Clarence Tillenius. She considers herself lucky to have studied with Bob Kuhn, Kenneth Riley, Howard Terpning, Ned Jacob, and Bill Moyers, her father-in-law. Terri has won many major awards, most notably the 2012 Prix de West, capturing the highest honor in the genre. She is only the second woman to have received this honor. But, for her, it's about emotions, not the awards. "I put things down I think are beautiful and that move me. I want to share what I see with other people and help them have the same emotion," Terri stated. John and Terri still take annual trips to Canada to paint and regularly undertake painting expeditions all around the West, including Hawaii.

LIVE AUCTION

LIVE 101

TEDDY ROOSEVELT

Donated by Joe Wiegand

Estimate: $5,000 to $10,000

To kick off the auction, Teddy Roosevelt, in the person of Joe Wiegand, will tell the story of how the Teddy Bear got its name. We will then auction off one of his personal Teddy Bears and his services as TR for one full day, with no additional cost to the bidder. He will travel anywhere in the continental US and be available for a special birthday, corporate event, or other event; you could even bring him to your kid's school for show and tell. Expires December 31, 2024.

WHITE DOVE CHAPEL

2019, oil on linen, 20 x 30"

Estimate: $6,000 to $9,000

Kevin Kehoe is a native New Englander who was drawn to settle in Utah's Heber Valley. His influences include Edward Hopper, Andrew Wyeth, Winslow Homer, Georgia O'Keeffe and Maynard Dixon. He has work in the Booth collection and has been named as an Artist to Watch by Southwest Art Magazine. "Light, to me, is the most beautiful element in the universe. My paintings are about how I want to recall a moment in time in my mind and more importantly, my heart."

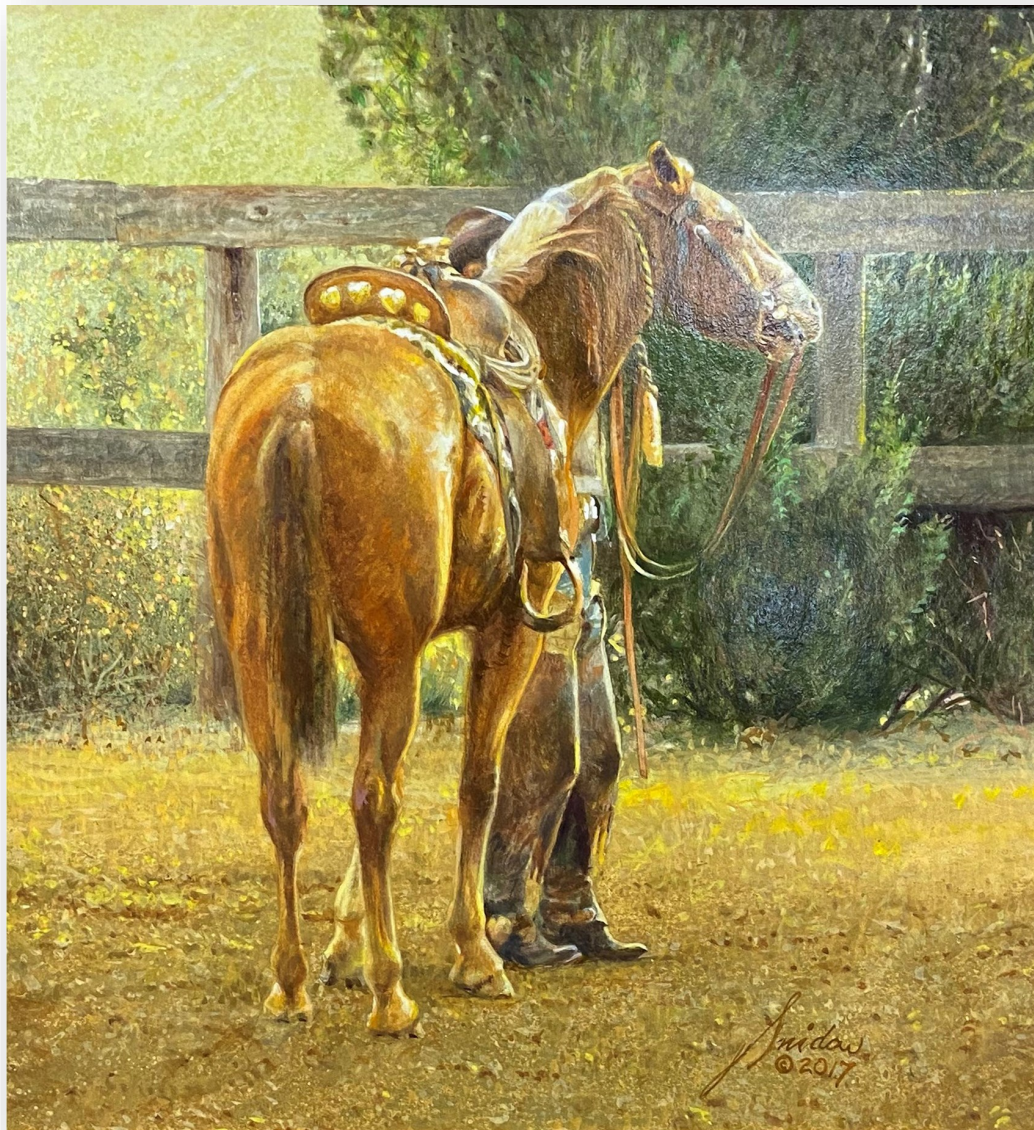

GORE RANGE

2022, oil on linen, 24 x 56"

Estimate: $7,000 to $11,000

One of Chris Groves' early experiences which spurred his love of art was meeting master sculptor Glenda Goodacre, who has two monuments on the grounds of the Booth. Growing up in both Louisiana and Colorado, he was exposed to nature and began creating art reflecting this passion. Groves spent ten years as an art director for two large companies, while continuing to study and hone his fine art skills. A two-year mentorship with master painter Jay Moore led him to pursue fine art full time.

HIS FAVORITE

2017, gouache & varnish, 16 x 15"

Estimate: $10,000 to $20,000

Upon his 1959 graduation from art school, Gordon Snidow decided to ignore the opportunities of a career in commercial art and follow his dream of painting the West. At the time, there was almost no market for realism, let alone Western Art, and even less for scenes of the Contemporary West. For over 60 years, he has painted the Contemporary American West as it is, unvarnished. During the years that he was in the CAA, he won 24 Gold and Silver Medals and three Best of Show awards.

LIVE 105

ROSS ROSSIN

CANYON

2021, oil on canvas, 21 x 16"

Estimate: $10,000 to $15,000

Ross Rossin is one of the world's leading portrait painters. His hyper-realist portraits of Andrew Young, Hank Aaron, Morgan Freeman and Dr. Maya Angelou are in the collection of the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery. His murals depicting all of the U.S. Presidents are on view in the Booth's Commanders in Chief Gallery. A 2019 trip out West with Booth Director Seth Hopkins launched a new direction in his artwork and this painting inspired by Arizona's Antelope Canyon is one of the results.

HOMeward BOUND

2022, oil on linen, 30 x 20"

Estimate: $7,000 to $11,000

David Yorke is a Florida based artist who has been portraying the American West for more than 30 years. His work has been featured on the cover of Western Art Collector Magazine, and he has participated in numerous national shows such as the prestigious Masters of the American West at the Autry Museum, Western Visions at the National Wildlife Art Museum, and the Buffalo Bill Art Show at the Center of the West. His work is also in the Booth Museum permanent collection.

MORNING PRAYER WALK

2022, acrylic on canvas, 36 x 36"

Estimate: $7,000 to $11,000

Born in a hogan on Navajo tribal lands, Shonto Begay has been professionally writing, illustrating and painting since 1983. His work captures the striking beauties of a traditional Navajo upbringing and the harsh realities of modern reservation life. His acrylic paintings are done in a series of small brush strokes that repeat like the words of a traditional Navajo blessing prayer. Images harken back to heartfelt childhood memories and depict the constant struggle for balance between humankind and the Earth.

LIVE 108

DINNER PARTY FOR 8 PEOPLE

donated by Seth & Joyce Hopkins

Estimate: $2,500 to $5,000

A private dinner for eight in your home prepared by Seth and Joyce Hopkins. They will bring the groceries, cook, serve, and clean up. You provide any alcohol. Over dessert, Seth will lead a discussion on Western art and answer questions well into the night.

Expires November 30, 2023

DEBORAH COPENHAVER FELLOWS

THE GENTLE NUDGE

2022, bronze 4/25, 25 x 20 x 9"

Estimate: $8,000 to $11,000

Deborah Copenhaver Fellows is the embodiment of the West. Born and raised on a cattle and Quarter Horse ranch in northern Idaho, she won barrel races before she was a teenager. She was also the Miss Rodeo America Runner Up. Later, she discovered art was her vehicle to share her love for horses, humanity, and the West with the rest of the world. She has monumental sculptures in all parts of the country, including Statuary Hall in the U.S. Capitol and Booth Museum.

LIVE 110

DOUG SMITH

SEASON OF CHANGE

2021, acrylic on canvas, 48 x 48"

Estimate: $7,000 to $11,000

Doug Smith was fortunate to have parents who recognized his talent and encouraged him to pursue art. By age nine, he had sold his first oil painting. Smith received instruction at San Francisco City College and San Francisco Academy of Art University. In 2000, he made the transition from a career in graphic design to focusing full-time on his passion for painting. He has collectors worldwide and is in the permanent collection of the Rockwell Museum and the Booth Museum.

BILLIONAIRE'S CRYPTO CHIEF

2021, acrylic on canvas, 48 x 60"

Estimate: $14,000 to $22,000

The documentary "Life and Art of Malcolm Furlow," refers to him as a "Renaissance Man," equal parts cowboy, musician, and artist. His work is in the Booth permanent collection and many others including U.S. Embassies of Morocco, Belgium and Beijing; the Eiteljorg Museum; and National Wildlife Art Museum. His celebrity collectors include Arnold Schwarzenegger; Richard Pryor; Bernadette Peters; Wes Studi; Phyllis Diller; William DeVane; B.J. Thomas; Darryl Hannah; and Jon Bon Jovi.

TREASURES FROM THE WEST

2022, charcoal, 24 x 37"

Estimate: $30,000 to $40,000

The highly detailed still life paintings featuring wine by Thomas Arvid arise from his love for art and wine. He is a collector of both and he strives to capture the pleasures of a life well-lived on each canvas. He is one of a very few artists to have "launched a major art trend," as declared by Art Business News. His international appeal is confirmed by the more than 50 art galleries that carry his artwork worldwide. As he often says, "Life without art is like dinner without wine. Why bother?"
